

AH-64E APACHE

UK impact

The British Army's fleet of 50 AH-64E Apaches will provide frontline command with advanced, combat-proven capabilities, and become a force multiplier on the battlefield. Boeing provides all training, support and sustainment for the UK fleet.

50

Aircraft for the Army.

75
UK
suppliers

Delivering for the global fleet and supporting UK sustainment and training.

+200
workforce

Boeing employees, including apprentices, and graduates, deliver ground crew, aircrew and maintenance training at Wattisham and Middle Wallop flying bases.

4
Longbow
Crew Trainers

Three simulated training devices in country, helping crews transition to the new E-model variant, with an additional 1 on order.

20-year
agreement

Boeing and the Ministry of Defence signed a 20-year agreement for long-term training, support and sustainment.

+1280
global fleet

Including +745 E-models, across 18 countries, generating an international customer base for UK industry.

*Orders on contract as of July 2023

Wattisham Flying Station

Army Aviation Centre, Middle Wallop